Musical Parody, Authored by Western New York Native Valerie Witherspoon, to Hit the Shea's 710 Theatre Stage

Sex n' The City: A Musical Parody Runs in Buffalo on August 4

Sex n' the City: A (Super Unauthorized) Musical Parody is set to hit Shea's 710 Theatre Stage on Sunday, August 4th at 3:00pm. The show is written by Valerie Witherspoon, a native of the greater Buffalo region, and produced by Tim Flaherty, President & CEO of Entertainment Events, Inc.

Valerie Witherspoon is a writer, singer, actor, and voiceover artist with numerous credits. She was born and raised in Grand Island, New York.

Witherspoon started in the musical parody world playing Anastasia Steele in 50 Shades! The Musical. Later, Valerie joined the cast of Friends: The Musical Parody as the cover for Rachel, Monical and Phoebe. She is also the author of Bridesmaids: The Unauthorized Movie Musical Parody.

Sex n' the City: A (Super Unauthorized) Musical Parody follows everyone's favorite single gals looking for love in the big city. The show tackles serious questions like "will I ever find the one" and "can you ever really be over your ex." Come join Carrie, Miranda, Charlotte, and Samantha on a hilarious trip through New York in the 90s. For tickets to Sex n' the City: A (Super Unauthorized) Musical Parody at Shea's 710 Theatre visit:
