Teachers, consider this your permission slip to clock out and laugh it off. The Bored Teachers: “Is It Friday Yet?!” Comedy Tour has all-new jokes, bigger punchlines, and the kind of classroom chaos you can finally enjoy from the audience.

After a packed start to the year, the tour continues with a new fall leg in 2026, with 38 additional dates including a 7:30PM show at Shea’s Buffalo Theatre on Saturday, October 24, 2006.

The Bored Teachers are hitting cities all over the US and Canada from September through December. The “Is It Friday Yet?!” Comedy Tour kicked off on January 15, 2026. This wildly popular tour will be hitting over 90 cities across the U.S., Asia, and Canada.

Artist presale begins Thursday, April 16 at 4pm. Signup to be the first to access the presale at boredteachers.com/comedy-tour.

Tickets go on sale to the public Monday, April 20 at 10am and will be available at the Shea’s Box Office at 650 Main Street in Downtown Buffalo or online at www.sheas.org/performances/bored-teachers.

A GLOBAL COMEDY PHENOMENON

Since launching the tour in 2022, the Bored Teachers Comedy Tour has sold out theaters in nearly every U.S. state and across 7 provinces Canada, expanded internationally to the U.K., Australia, and New Zealand, and performed in front of more than 200K teachers worldwide. With +1 billion video views, +10 million followers, and the #1 teacher-comedy podcast, Bored Teachers has become the go-to brand for educators everywhere seeking laughter, community, and a little comic relief.

One teacher described the show as “the night out we needed to make it through the school year!” Another joked, “I just wish it was 8 hours long like a real PD session.” Even non-teachers rave that it’s one of the funniest comedy shows they’ve ever seen.

WHY THIS SHOW MATTERS

“Teachers spend their lives giving everything they have for their students,” said one Bored Teachers comedian. “This tour is about giving something back—an unforgettable night of laughter and connection. Judging by the response, it’s exactly what teachers need right now.” Fans have referred to the tour with “this is your therapy.”

But it's not just for educators. Anyone who's ever been in a classroom, dealt with a parent-teacher conference, or struggled to keep a straight face during a staff meeting will find the jokes hilariously relatable.

ABOUT BORED TEACHERS

Founded by former teachers James and Marilou Tarantino, Bored Teachers started as a grassroots social community built on the hilarious truths of life in education. Almost a decade later, it has evolved into the world's leading teacher-entertainment company—producing viral sketches, stand-up tours, podcasts, articles, and content that spotlight the struggles, joys, and absurdities of the profession. Today, Bored Teachers is not just a media company—it's a global movement that gives teachers a voice, a laugh, and a place to belong.
